Dedication

Mr. Carl F. Welch, Supervising Principal

We, the class of 1963, proudly dedicate our Crest to Mr. R. J. Bost, our principal, for his guidance during the past three years and his understanding of our many problems.

Dedication

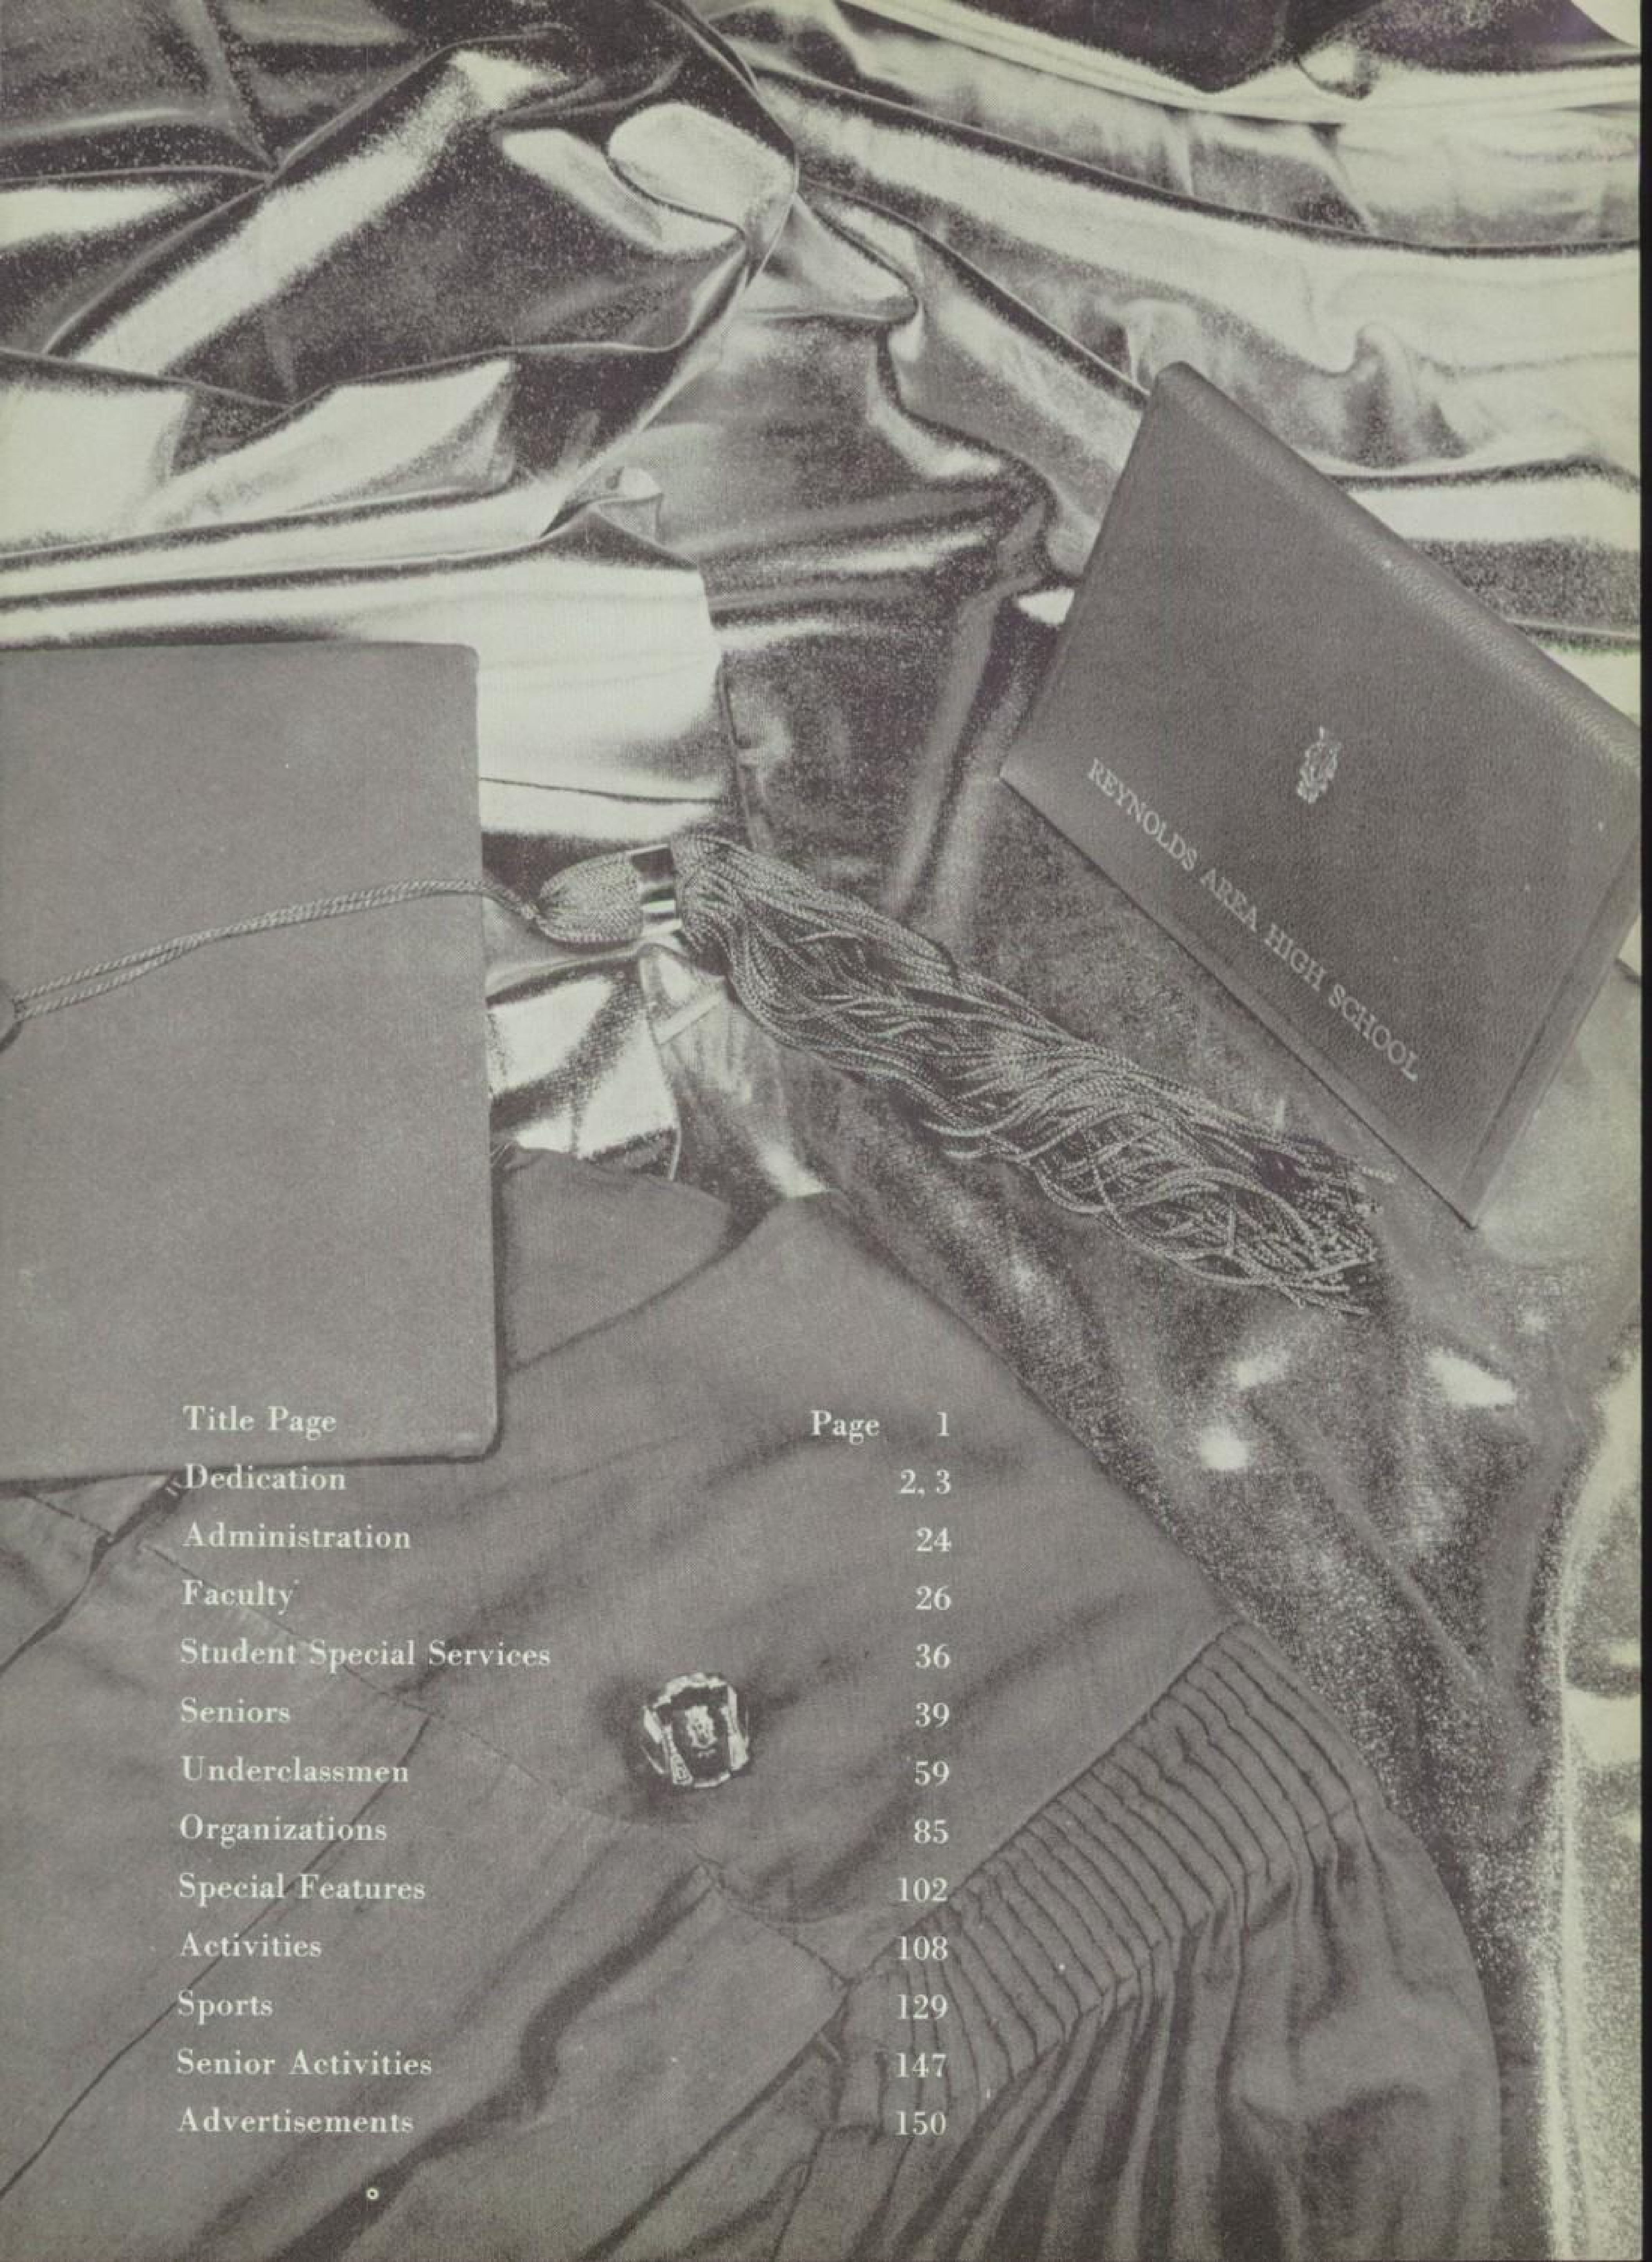

Mr. R. J. Bost, Principal

Memories—ah memories! They are joyous and they are sad, but they are all precious to us. All the fun and laughter, tears and heartaches—all these memories of our school days will be held tight within these pages.

We, the Crest staff, hope this book will bring back those precious moments of the year gone by, and in the future years, recapture memories of those wonderful moments!

Welcome, Emmert Arford to Reynolds High

The world is waiting for you

These memories we gathered in happy times

Smile, you're on Candid Camera

Will linger with us throughout the years

Follow that man

Our Classes . . .

Now this is a square!

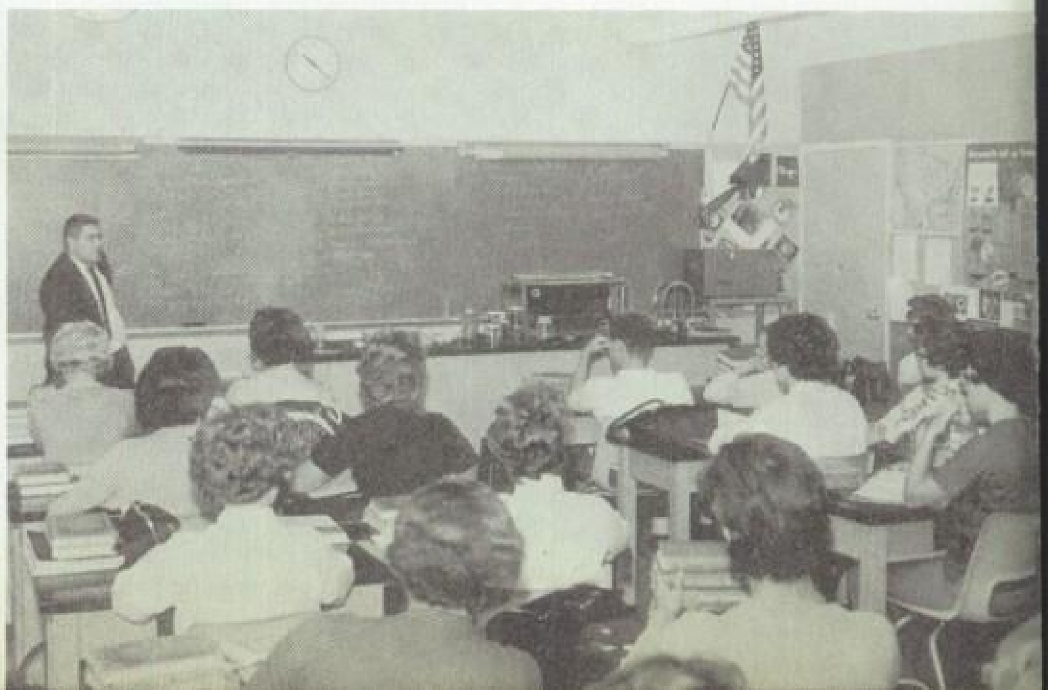

But I keep telling you I can't read

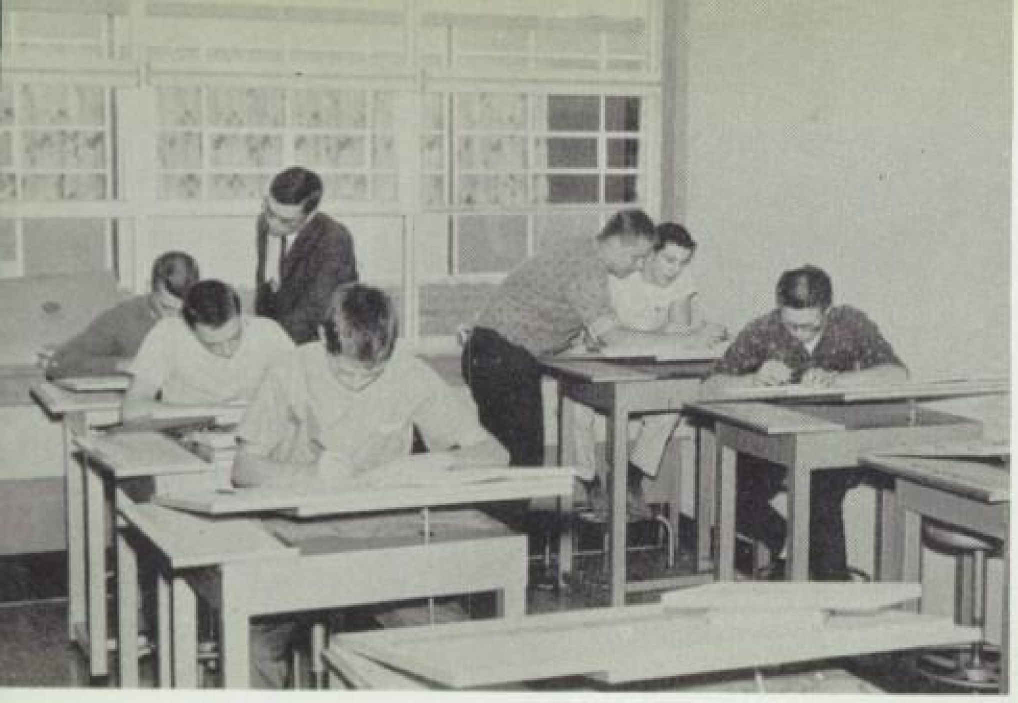

Now, when I was in the Army . . .

How do you boil water?

Class dismissed! I'm going fishing.

Scratch, Scratch, Scratch!

The electromagnet works—here comes the moon.

What, no meter stick!

Look whose laughing in the third row.

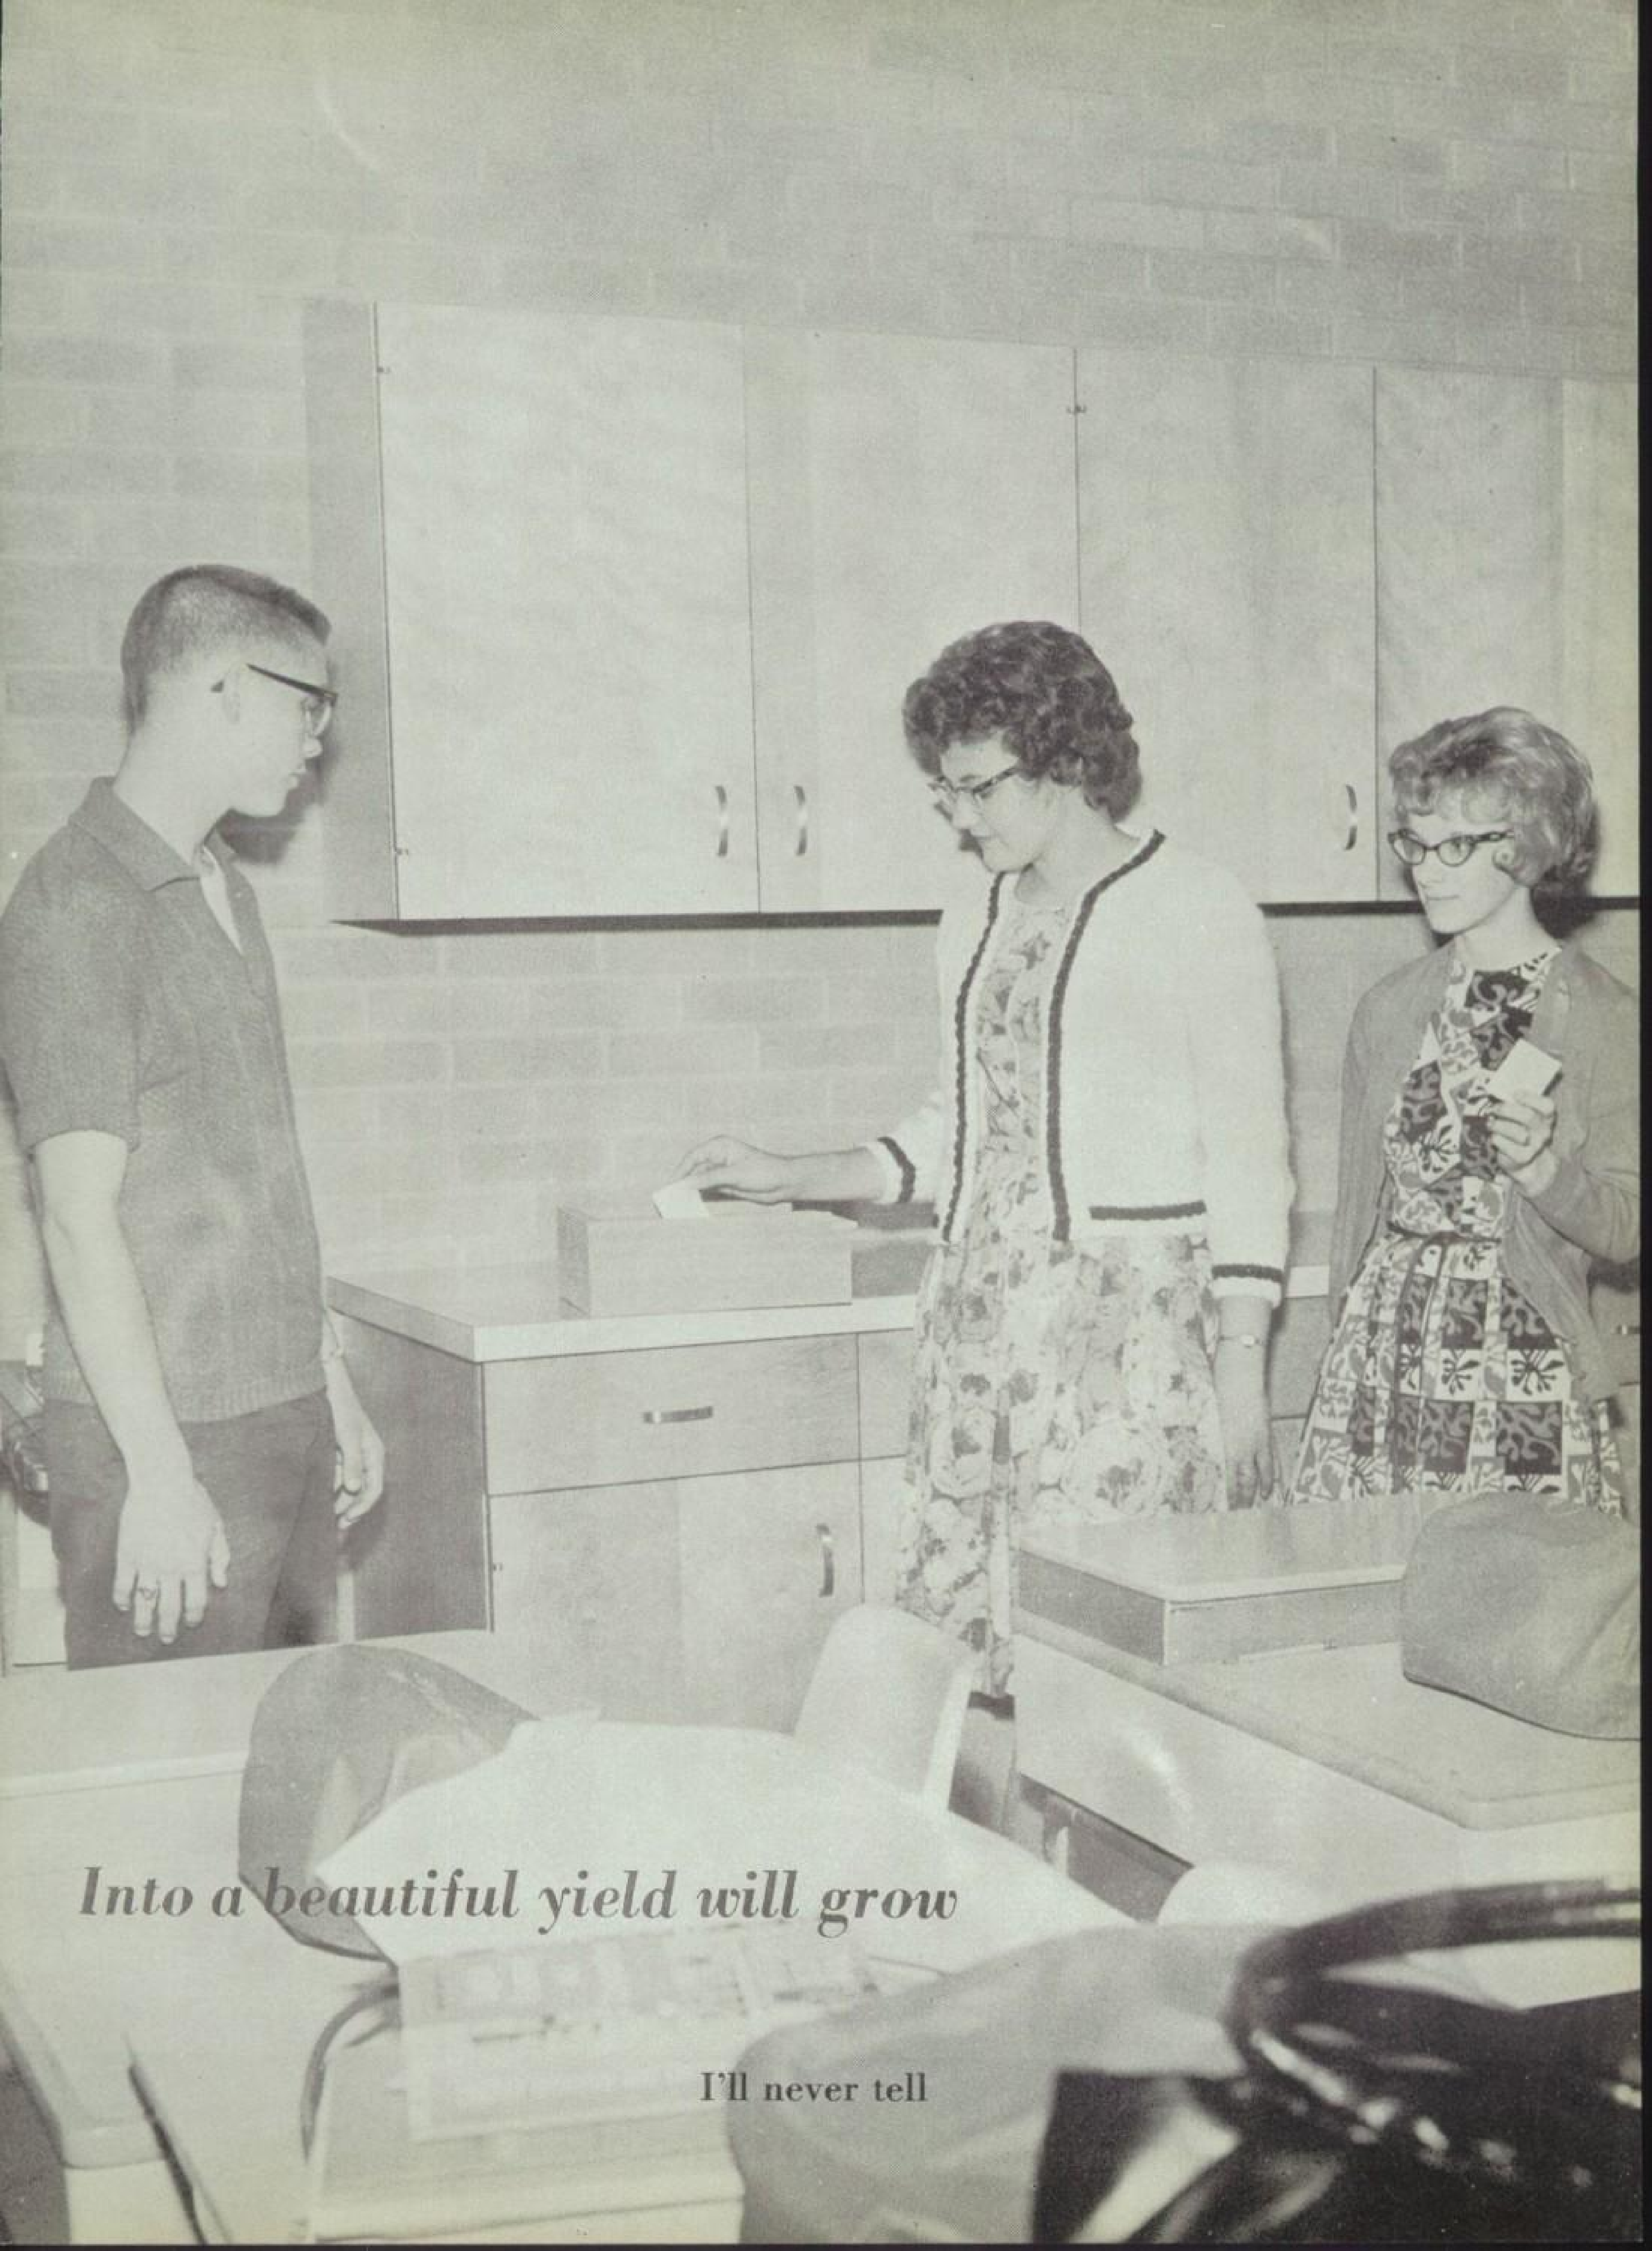

Now, this is where we raise horses.

The time goes by.

Little by little the seed we sow

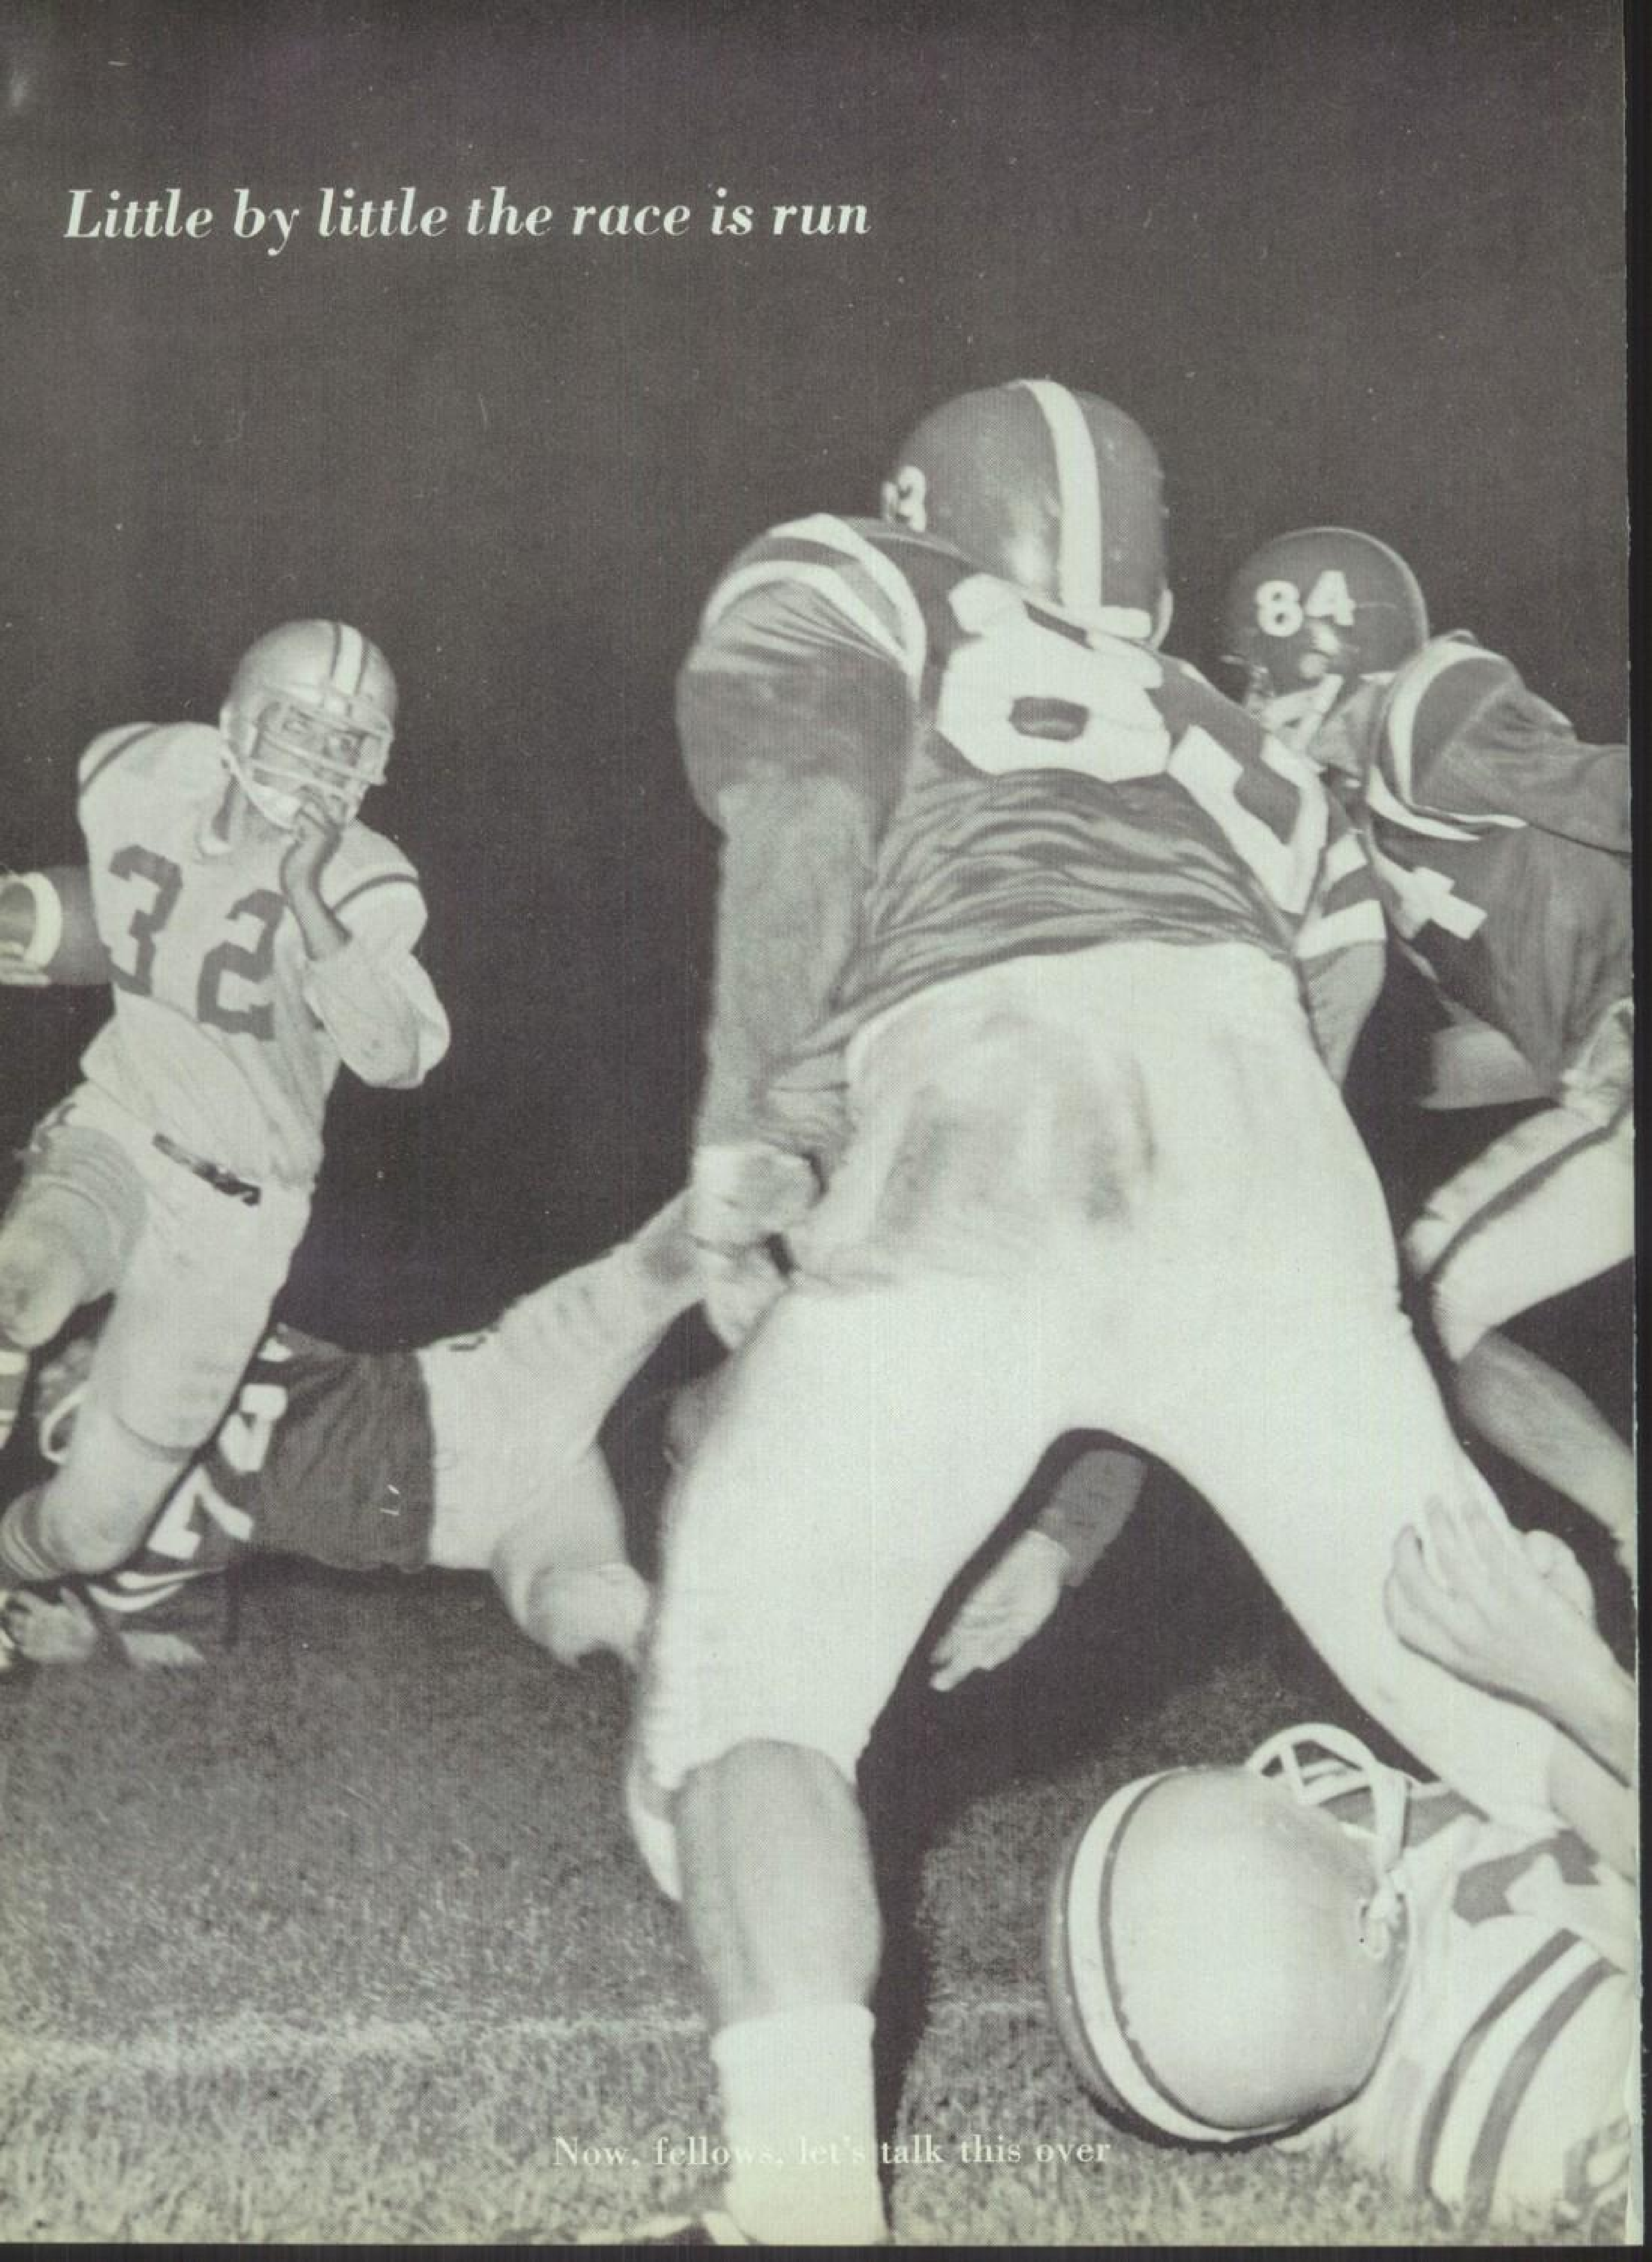

College Counseling

Into a beautiful yield will grow

I'll never tell

Little by little the race is run

Now, fellows, let's talk this over

Trouble and writing and toil are done

Little by little each one grows strong

What, no comedy?

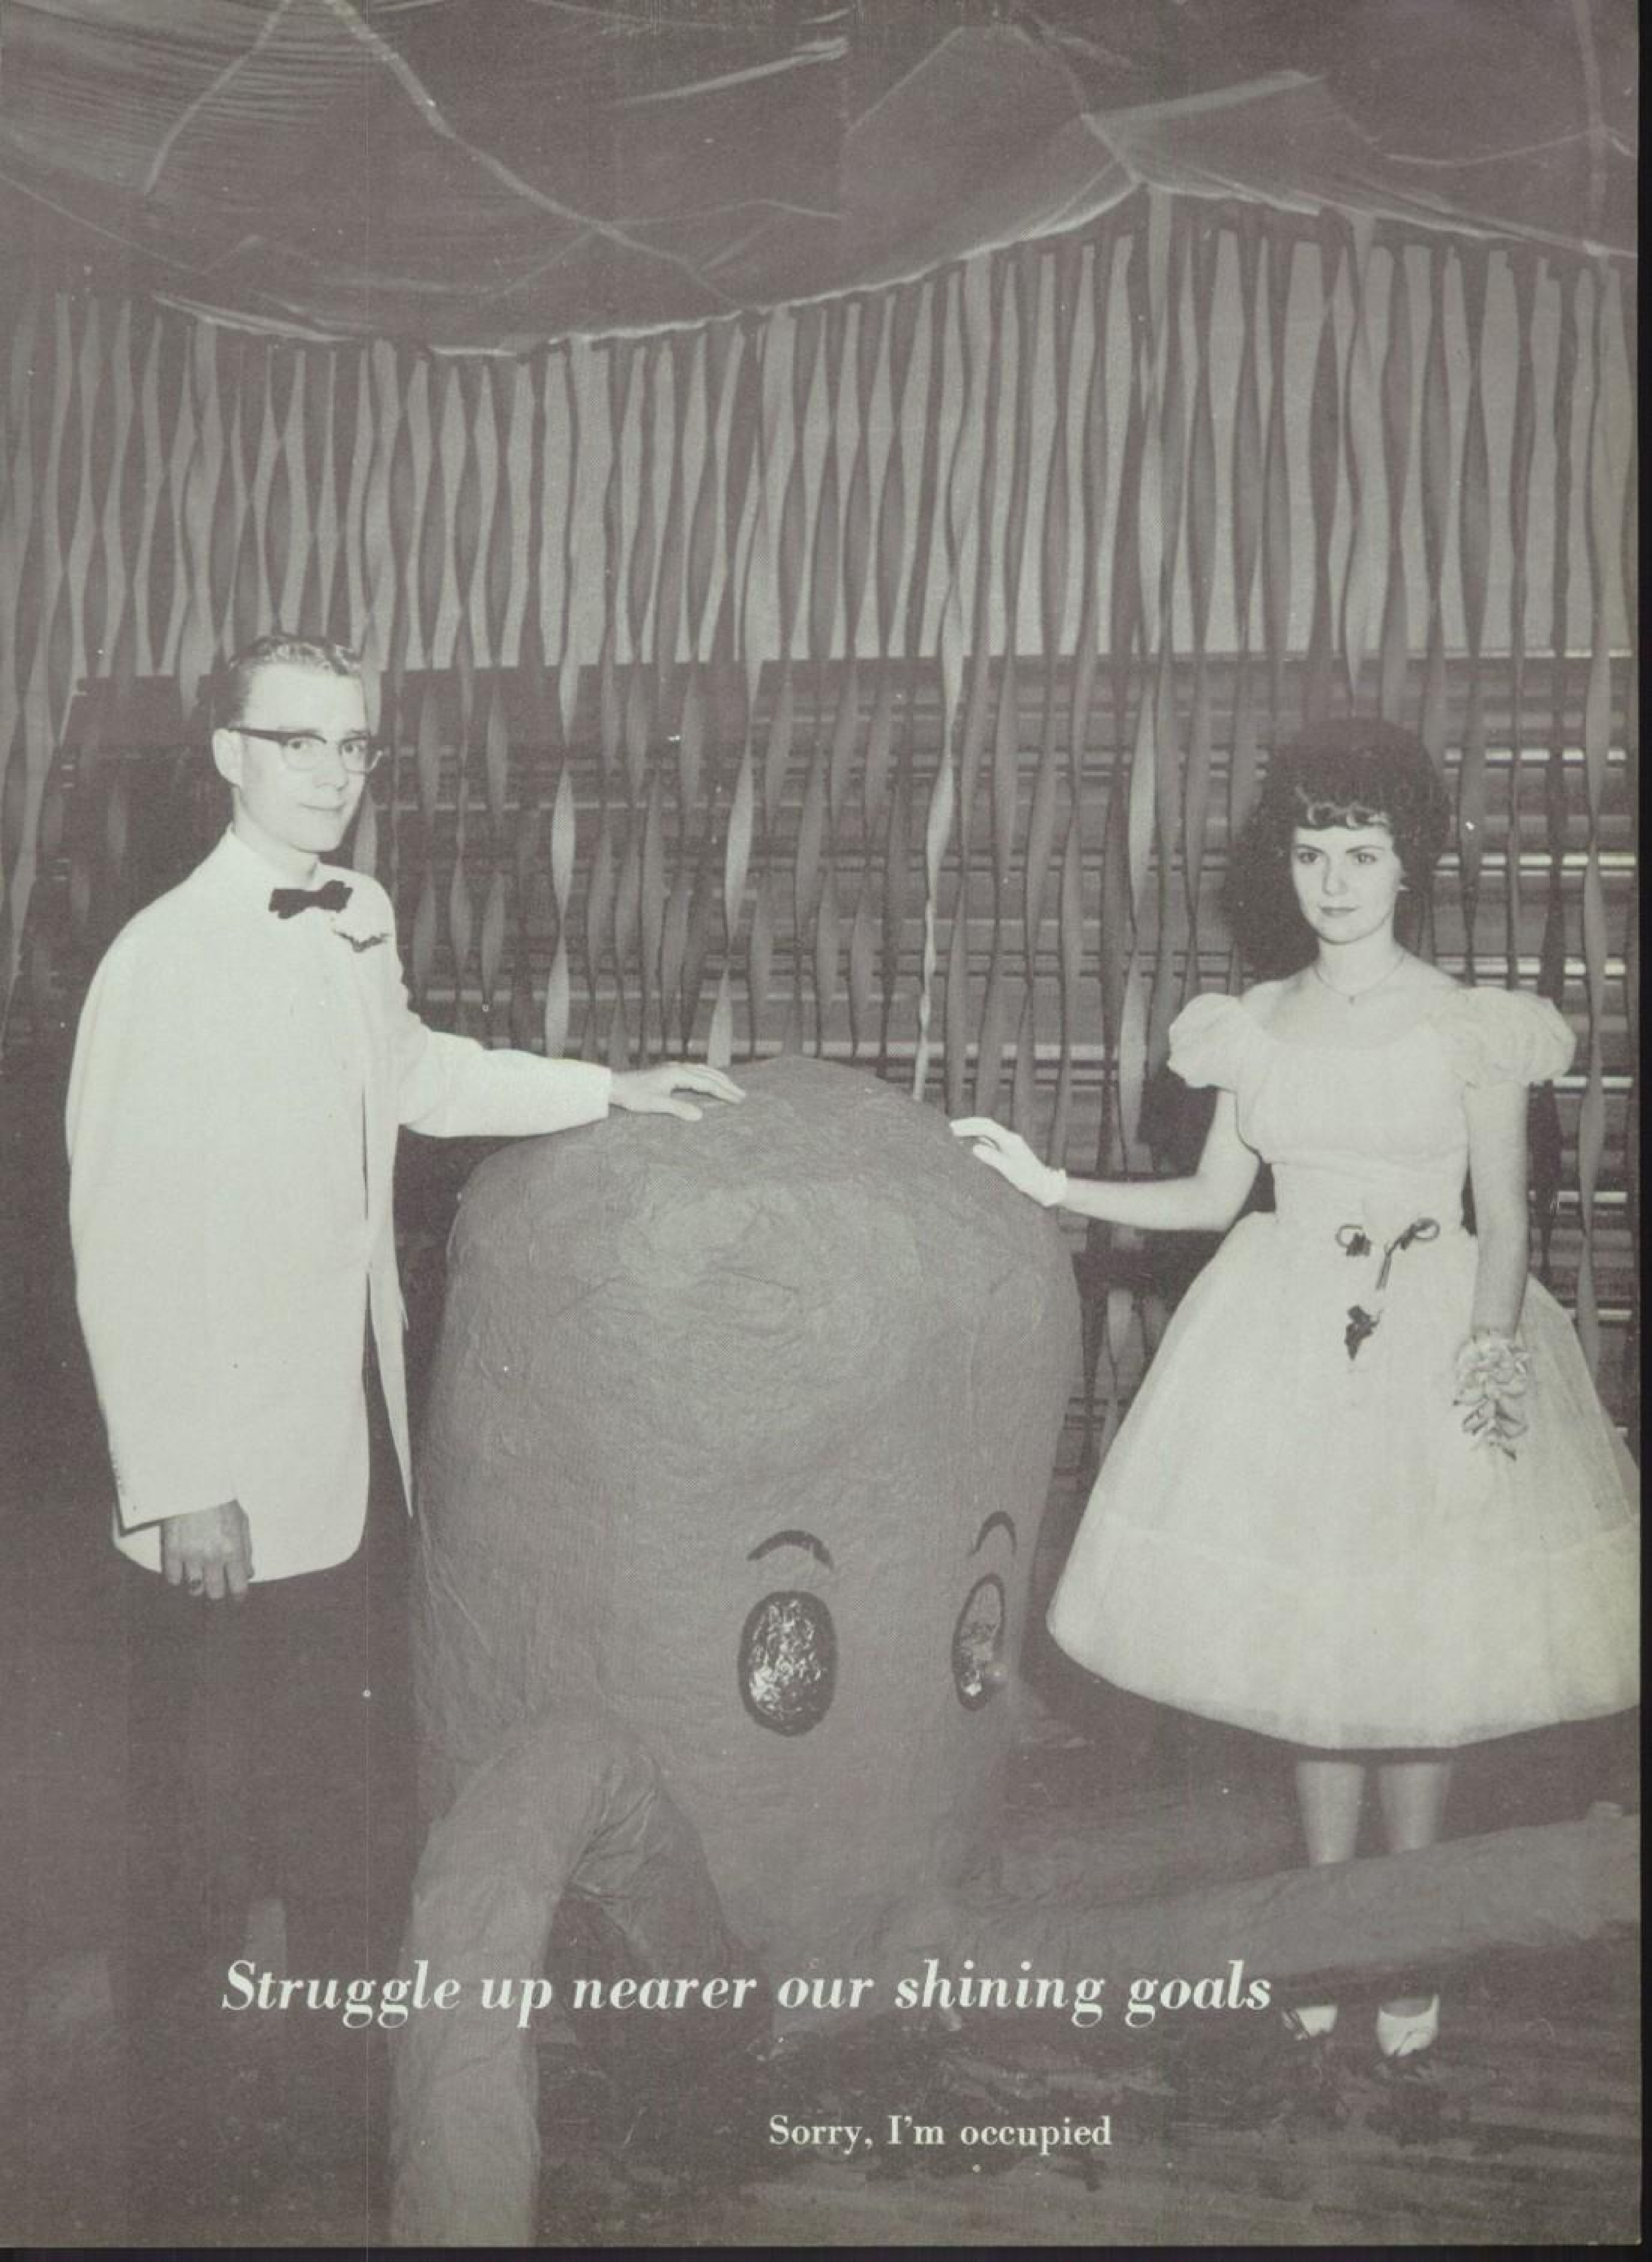

Fighting the battle of right and wrong

See you in court.

Little by little our longing souls

How many days tardy?

Struggle up nearer our shining goals

Sorry, I'm occupied

As we work together

Everybody ready now, 1, 2, 3.

Our Faculty

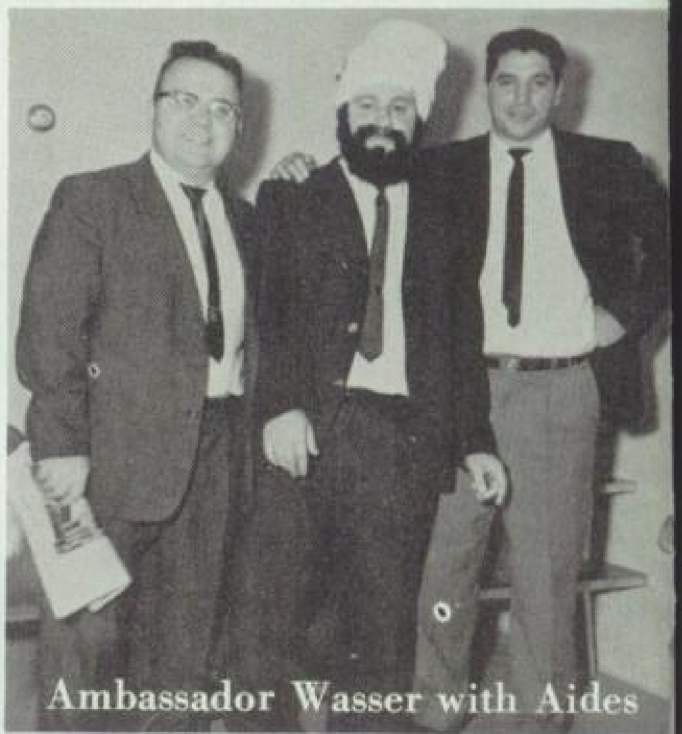

I can't believe it!

More party plans?

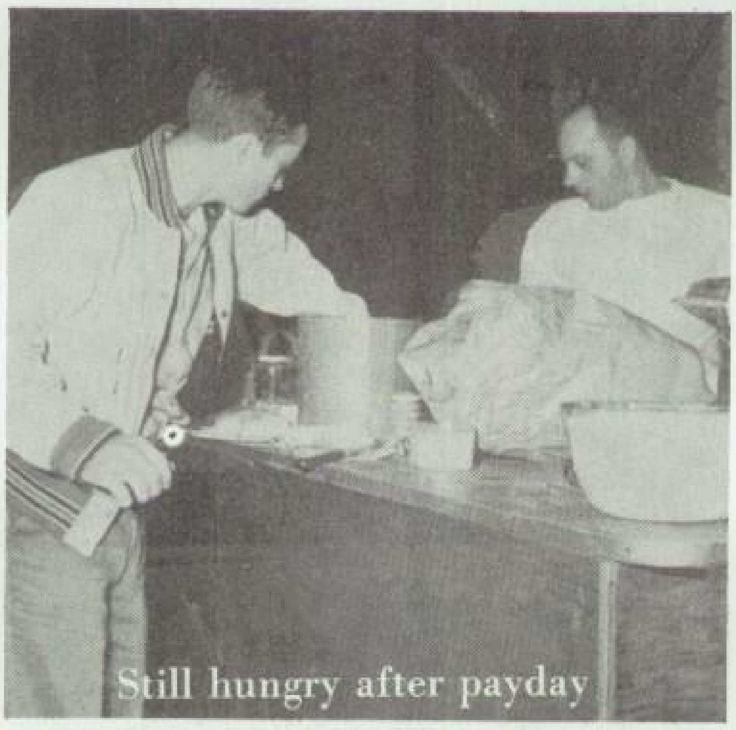

Our happy-go-lucky faculty

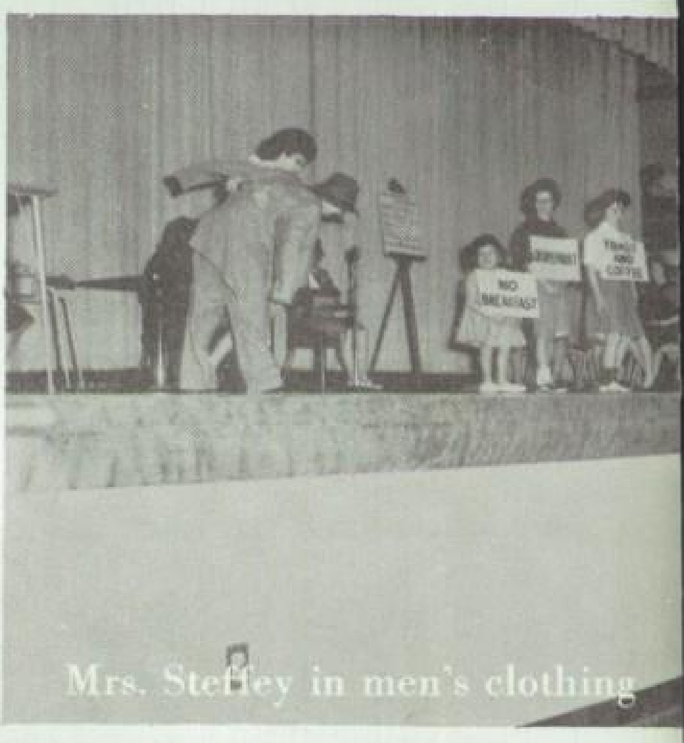

Ambassador Wasser with Aides

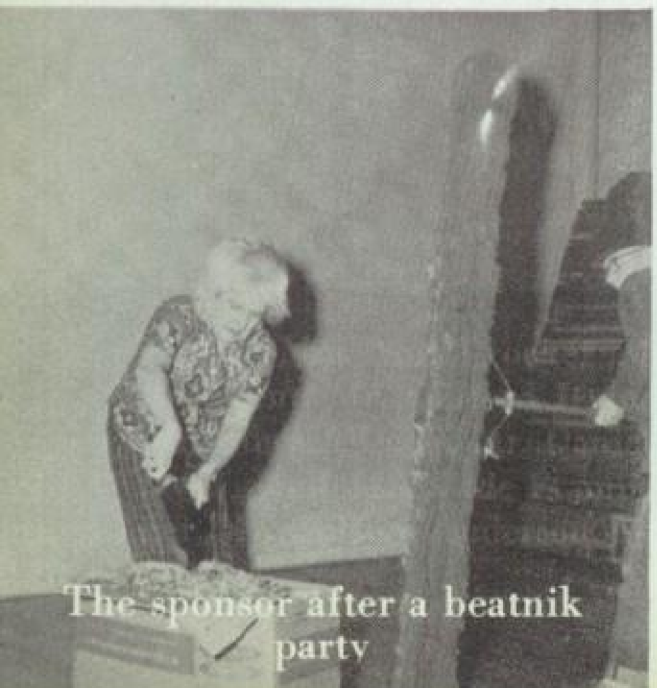

Administering the last rites

Still hungry after payday

Mrs. Steffey in men's clothing

The sponsor after a beatnik party

A quiet moment

Special Education Graduation 1962

This time holds special memories of the happy years gone by.

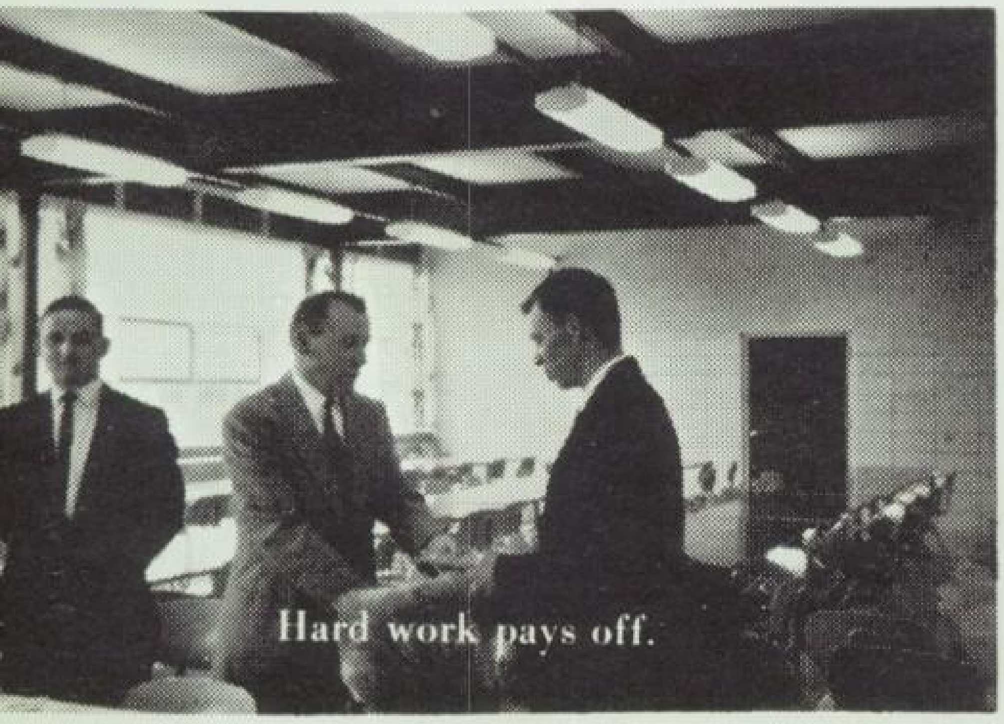

Proud Parents.

Words to remember.

The last lesson for the graduates.

Hard work pays off.

Congratulations for a job well done.

When do we eat?

Well, Bob! Congratulations!

Here for just a short time, but contributing much to our learning

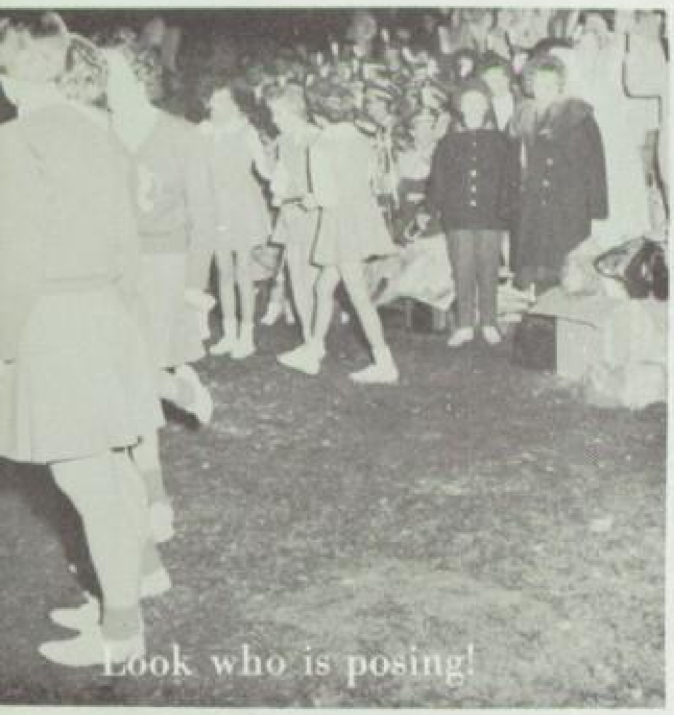

Who didn't pay the electric bill?

No more dishes . . .

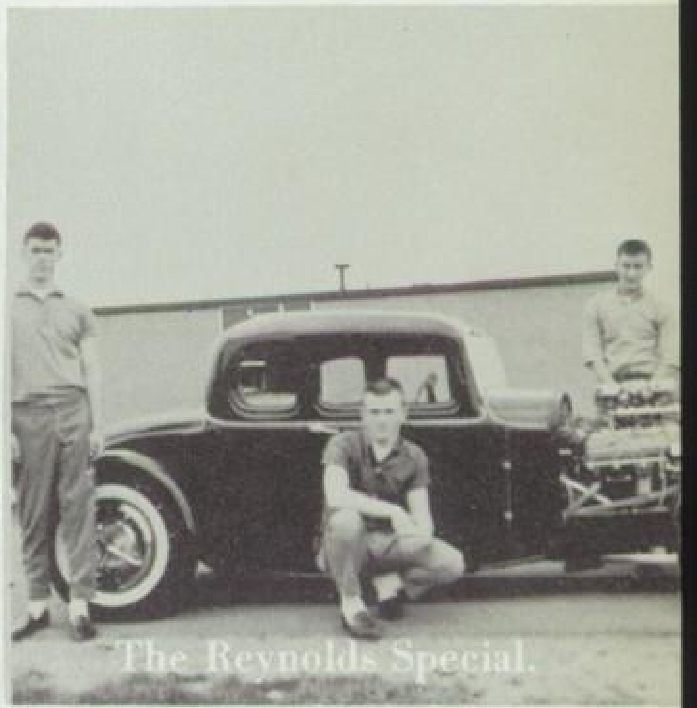

That glorious moment.

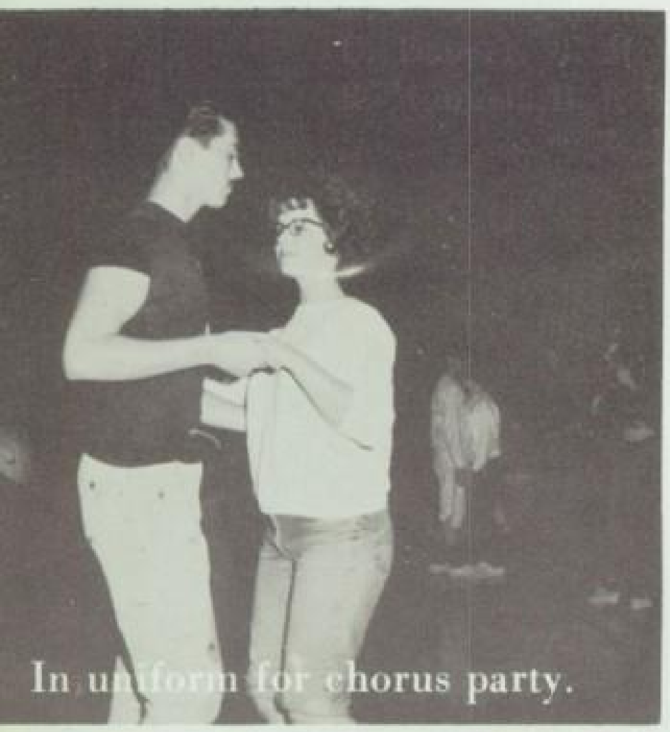

Look who is posing!

No, no, not the toes!

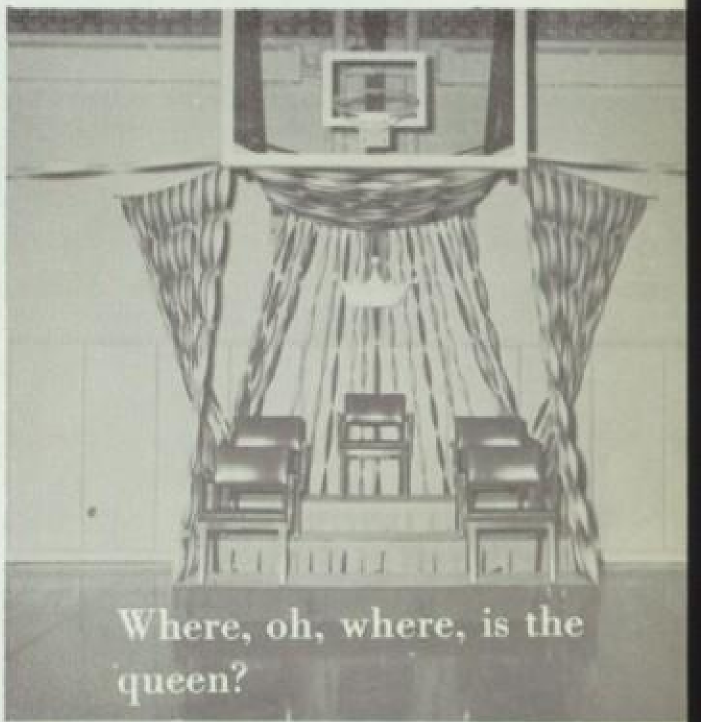

The Reynolds Special.

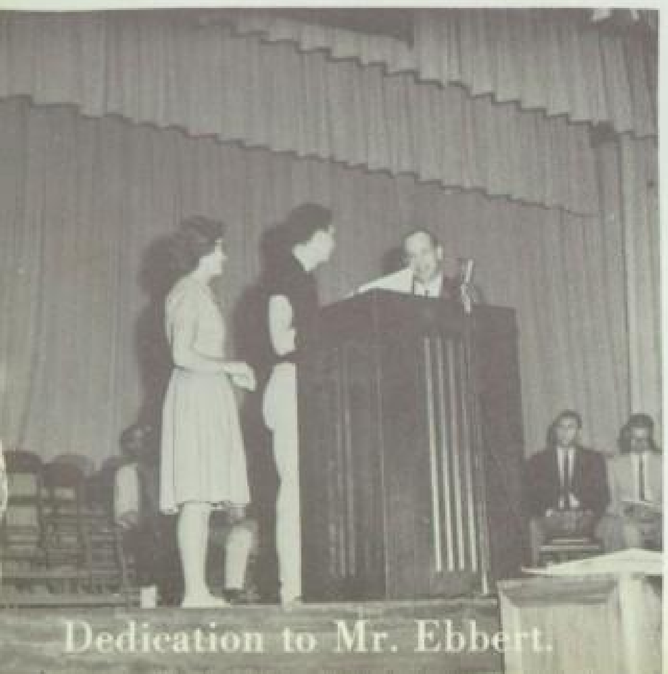

In uniform for chorus party.

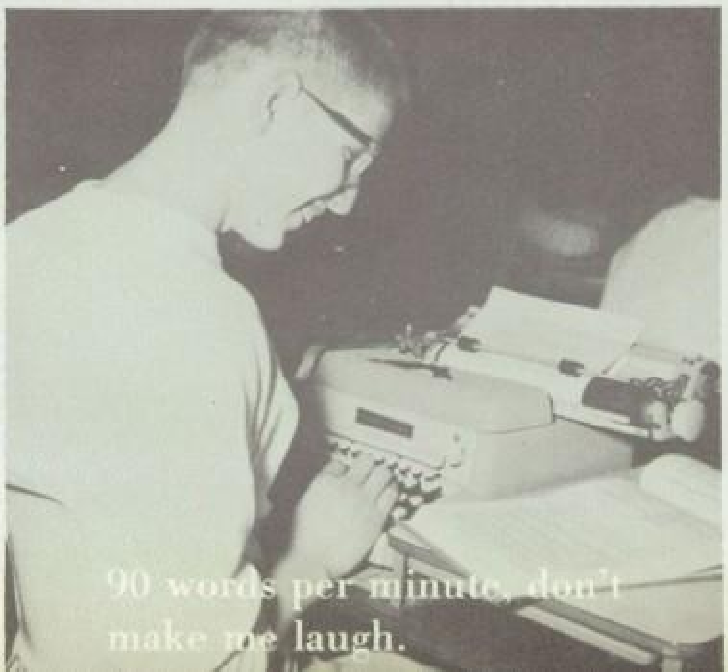

Get your finger off the scales.

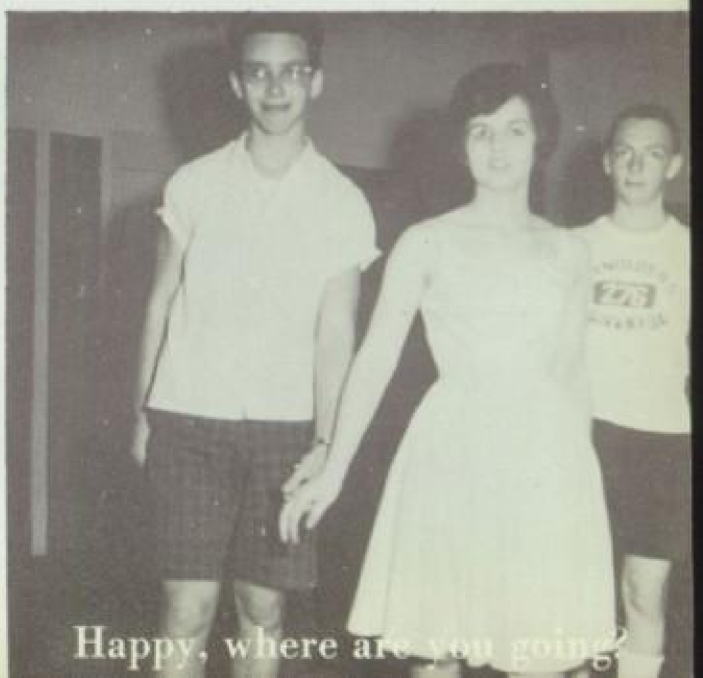

Where, oh, where, is the queen?

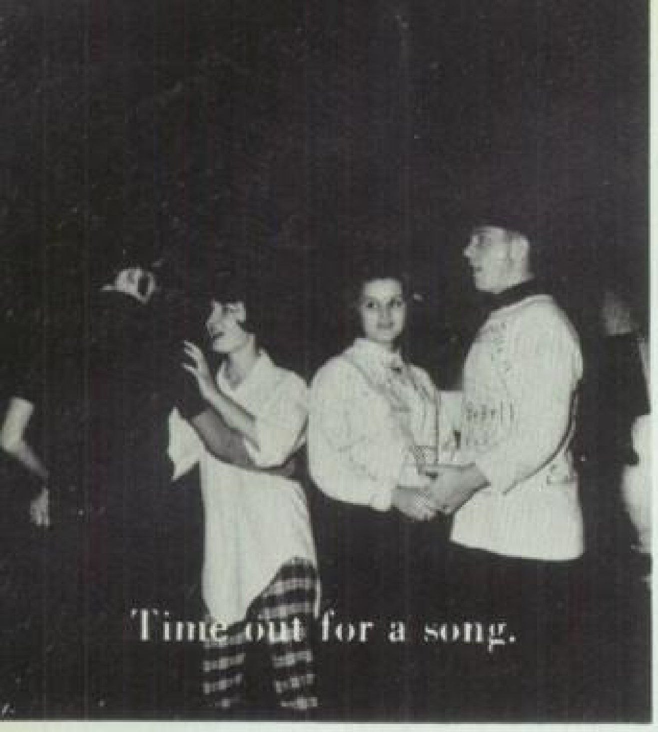

Dedication to Mr. Ebbert.

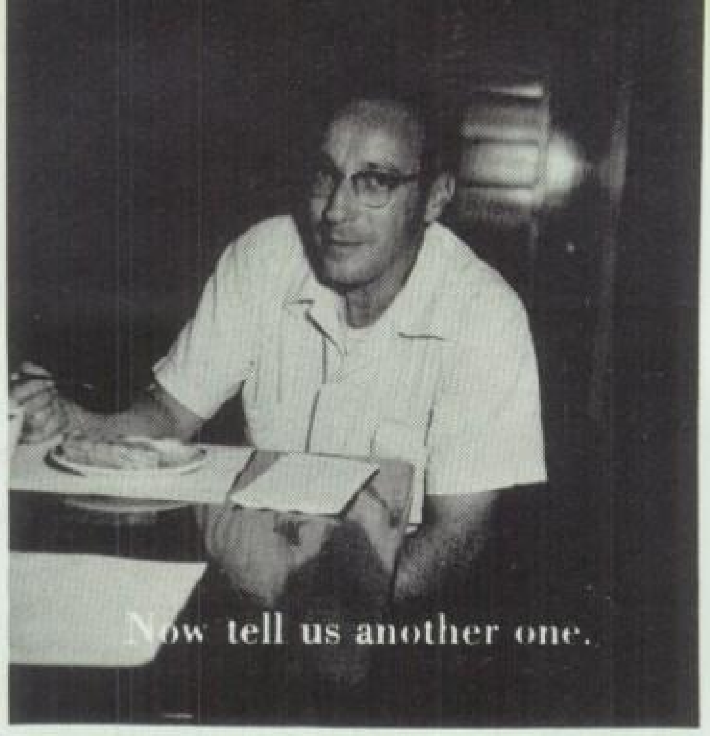

90 words per minute, don't make me laugh.

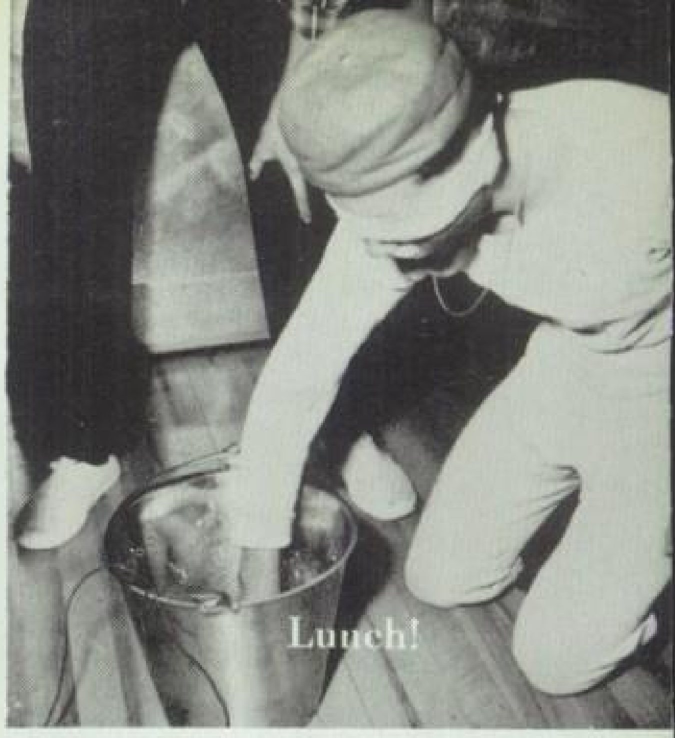

Happy, where are you going?

Time out for a song.

Now tell us another one.

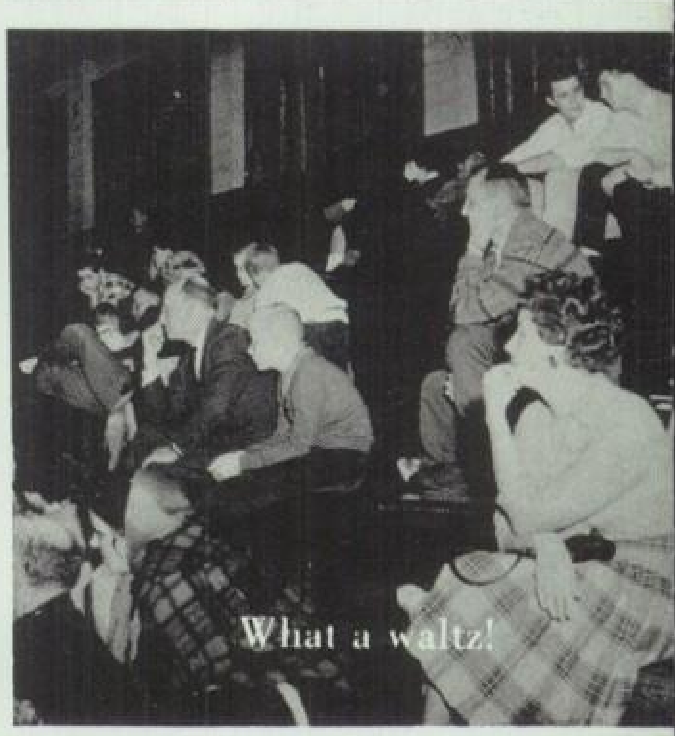

Lunch!

The roving eye.

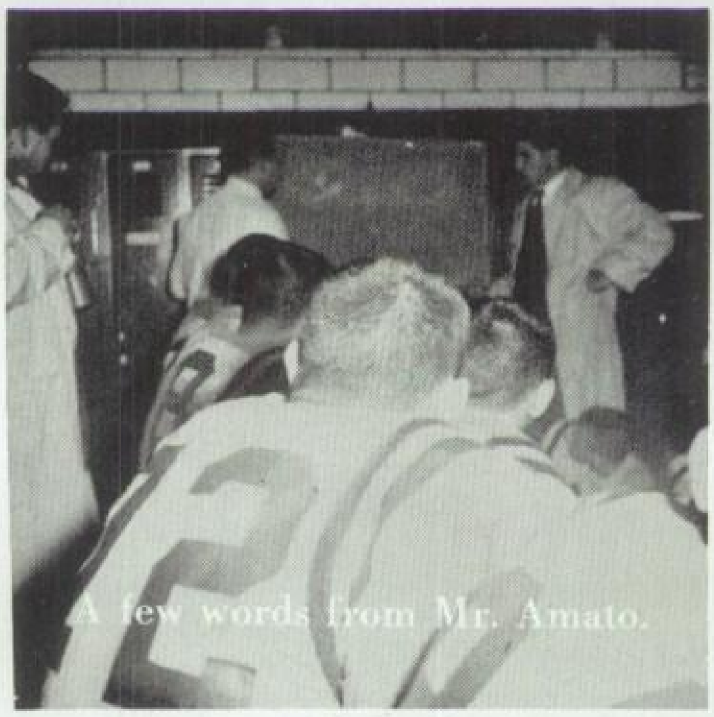

What a party!

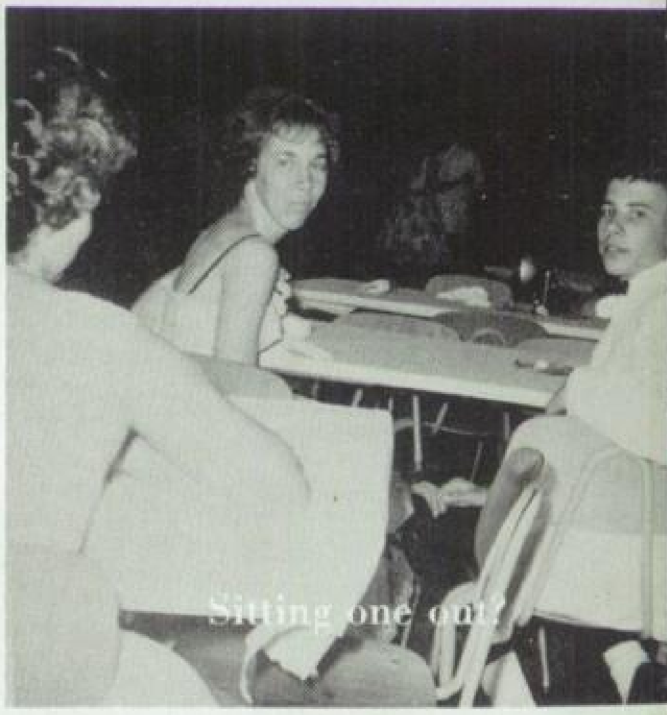

What a waltz!

Hamburger 29c a pound.

A few words from Mr. Amato.

Sitting one out?

Now let's cheer.

Our ambassador.

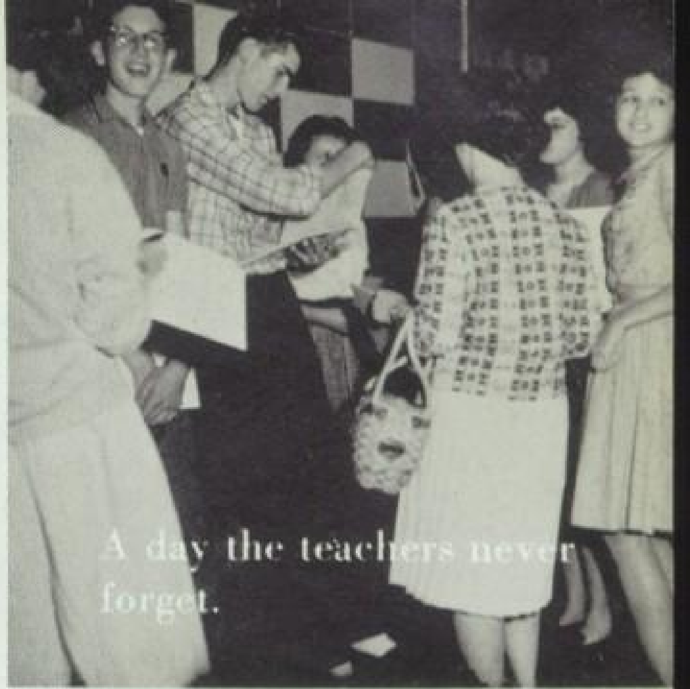

Mr. Ambassador's entourage.

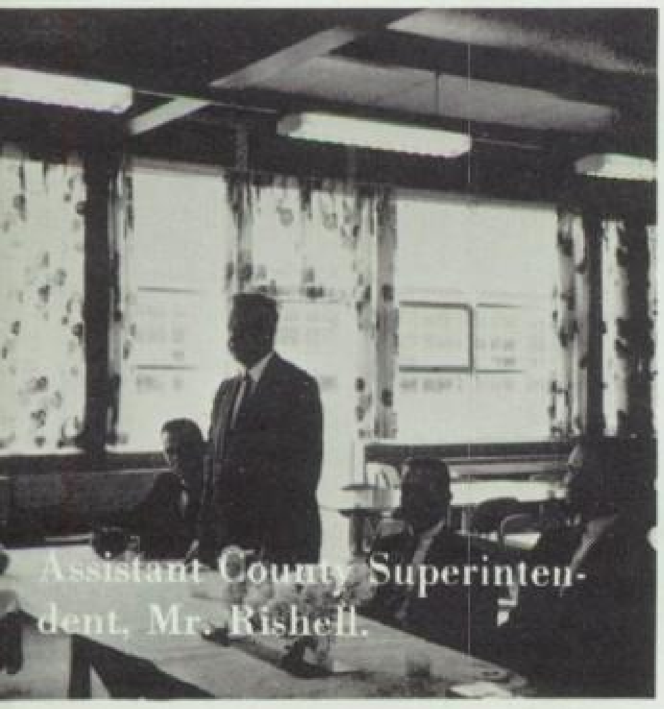

A bird's eye view.

Just a moment.

A day the teachers never forget.

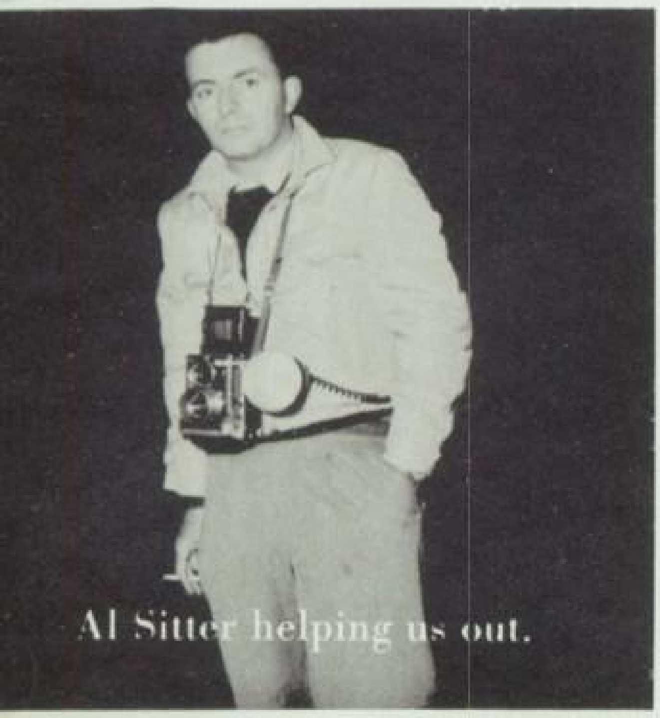

Assistant County Superintendent, Mr. Rishell.

Who gets excited?

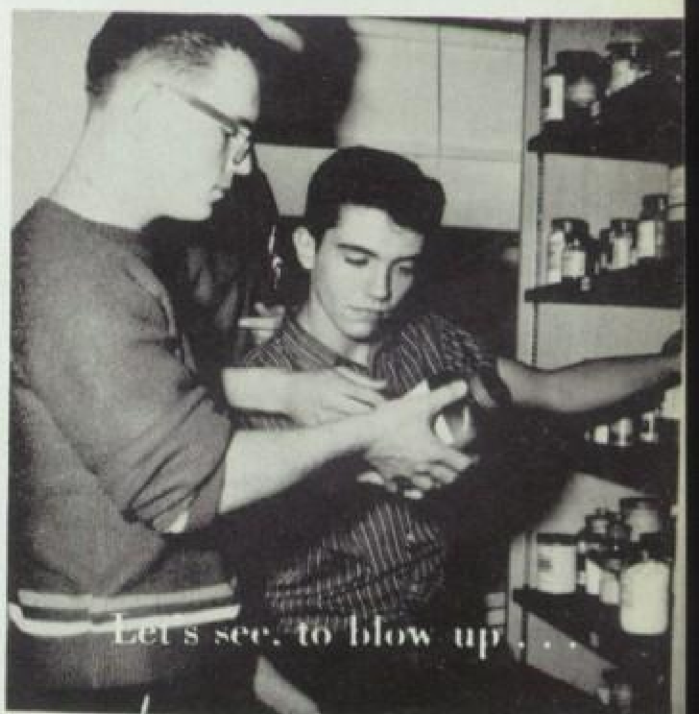

Now see here!

Al Sitter helping us out.

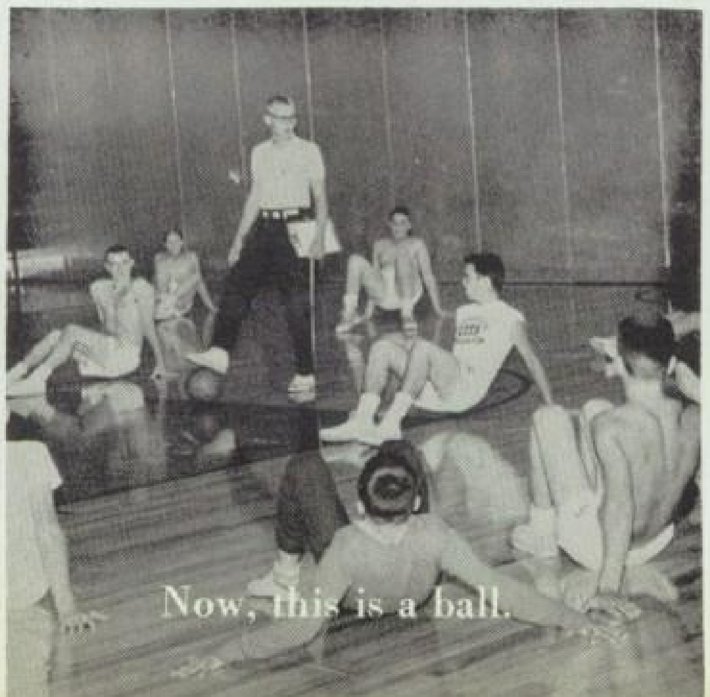

Rosey, look who is in this picture.

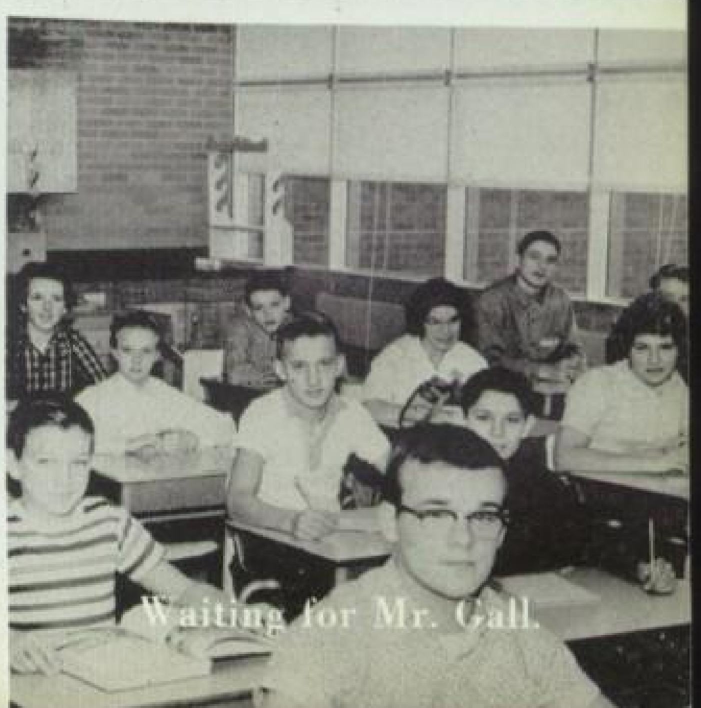

Let's see, to blow up . . .

Stand on your feet.

Now, this is a ball.

Waiting for Mr. Gall.
